

July 2001

Gen. Ryan visits Maui Space Surveillance Complex

SPACE SURVEILLANCE — Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Michael E. Ryan, left, receives briefing on operations of 1.6-meter telescope at the Air Force Research Laboratory's Maui Space Surveillance Complex, Haleakala, Hawaii, from Capt. Robin Orth, Detachment 15, Operations Flight commander in May. The Maui site is home to the Air Force's prime deep-space tracking facility. @ (Air Force photo)